A wild rumor is in the air that the street cars will arrive to-morrow or the next day. So may it be.

DAVID FERGUSON, the defaulting back-tax collector, of Louisville, was pardoned by Gov. Blackburn last Saturday.

M. A. DAUPHIN, of the Louisiana Lottery, has sued George James, editor and proprietor of the New York Times, for $50,000 damages for libel.

CHARLEY FORD, slayer of Jesse James, has been arrested at Kansas City for complicity in the Blue Cut train robbery in 1881, the last important raid made by the James boys. Ford says he can prove an alibi.

GROVE KENNEDY, the notorious Garrard county outlaw, was pardoned by Governor Blackburn, last Friday. He was serving time for killing his uncle, Eb. Kennedy, in 1876. It has been claimed all along, by many of his friends, that the killing was in self defense.

HON. RICHARD REID, of Mt. Sterling, has announced himself as a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals, to succeed Judge Thomas F. Hargis, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Reid is one of the most prominent attorneys of this district, and made the race for the nomination in the last contest.

The contractors and officials engaged in the building of the new jail, have followed the habitual policy of our City Council, and from the beginning adopted the policy of taking "further time." The work on this public edifice has been dragging "its slow length along" for more than a year, and how much "further time" will be taken before it is completed, the Lord only knows.

The Kentucky State Guard has been ordered to assemble at Frankfort for the purpose of military instruction, in camp, on the first day of next September. They are to remain in camp five days. Special arrangements have been made with the various railway companies for the transportation of the troops. Only officers, soldiers and musicians, together with two cooks, allowed for each company, and servants and cooks for regimental and battalion headquarters will be thus transported. The expenses are to be certified to the Adjutant General's office, and paid out of the military fund. September 3rd the Guard will be reviewed by the Governor, and on the 4th they will attend the inauguration of the next Governor of Kentucky, J. Proctor Knott.

A New Enterprise.

The spirit of enterprise is becoming rife in Maysville. It is seizing upon all practicable modes for success. The latest idea, an application to the next County Court for articles of incorporation for a Stock and Cattle raising Company in the city of Maysville, the design of which is to breed and raise hogs in the city without expense, and exempt from taxation. All persons owning not less than six brood sows, and such members of the City Council as have voted to encourage the breeding and rumination of hogs in the streets and alleys of the city, are alone eligible to membership. It is believed a large number of hogs, say several thousand, can be raised each year in the city at little cost, and sold at the best market price, thus making great profit for the company. We advise the speculators to qualify themselves for membership, join the company, and enter into the grand corporate business of raising hogs in the streets of Maysville.

For the BULLETIN.
GOD GUIDES THE STORM.

BY J. C. M.
The spirit of the tempest shook,
His wing of raven hue
Above the sea, and hollow winds,
Howled o'er the waters blue.
Upon the deck alone there stood,
A man of courage high,
A hero, from whose bosom fear,
Had never drawn a sigh.
With folded arms erect he stood,
His countenance was mild,
And calmly gazing on the scene,
He bowed his head and smiled.
A wild shriek from the cabin rose,
Up rushed his beautiful bride,
With locks disheveled, and in tears,
She trembled at his side.
Oh, why, my love, upon thy lip,
She cried, doth play that smile,
When all is gloom and terror here
And I must weep the while.
No word the warrior spoke, but he
Drew from beneath his vest
A poniard bright, and placed its point
Against his heaving breast.
She started not, nor shrieked in dread,
As she had shrieked before,
But stood astonished, and surveyed
His tranquil features o'er.
"Now, why," he asked, "dost thou not start,
May not thy blood be spilt?"
With sweet composure she replied—
"My husband holds the gift."
"Dost wonder then, that I am calm,
That no fears shake my form?"
"I never can tremble while I know
My God guides the storm."

COUNTY POINTS.

MT. CARMEL.
We have been very much edified by Rev. Father O'Brien, Catholic pastor, of Flemingsburg. He preached in Canaan meeting house, Lewis county, last Sunday, and here on the evening of the 2nd inst., to large and appreciative congregations, made up of the different denominations, on the doctrine of the Catholic Church, and removed false impressions regarding that doctrine, from the minds of his hearers. All seemed, and even expressed themselves well pleased.

WASHINGTON.
Robert Goggin, of Paris, is at home on a visit.

Mr. Wm. Ardery and wife, of Paris, are on visit to her father, Mr. Adair.

Several of our young ladies expect to attend camp meeting next week. I hope they will captivate some of the preachers. I believe our little breachers are mortgaged property.

We have organized a Sunday school at the M. E. Church. It is now in a very flourishing condition. One of the sisters says the young people go for fun. She goes to see and be seen. I think she would make an excellent reporter for a daily paper.

The Misses Hayden, of Missouri, will visit Mrs. Wm. Gill, who fly.

A party of ladies and gentlemen went blackberrying last week. I think there was more courting done than picking berries, as several of the buckets were brought home empty.

Mr. F. J. Key is on the sick list. Dr. Strode is his physician. He is a pleasant gentleman and will command a good practice.

Miss Emma Goggin is on the sick list and will go to Escalopia Springs as soon as she is able.

Miss Proctor is visiting Mrs. Maddox. Ben. Wood is in the neighborhood.
